

Closing Transactions

Integrating all phases of the purchase and closing for your new home or investment property.

During the final transaction phase we coordinate the contractual timeline and manage remaining closing documentation. These may include verification of multi-disclosures required under federal and state laws, all documents escrow requires for balancing final HUD statements, title vesting, legal and loan documents together with broker's final documentation. Our goal is to guide you through the final steps to your new home or investment.